Allied Professional Membership | $200

Allied professional membership is offered to veterinarians, nutritionists, academia, consultants, or other individual industry professionals wishing to be involved and informed of the Dairy Calf and Heifer Association. Allied professional members have all privileges and rights of full membership and a single vote.

Individual Company Membership | $250

Company membership is offered to supporting industry companies and organizations that wish to have only selected employees enrolled as members, or which have a very small employee base. This membership is held in the company’s name - and will be listed as such, though only one designated individual per membership will receive membership rights and privileges. In the event that a company has more than one individual member in good standing, only one specifically-designated member shall be entitled to vote.

Corporate Membership | $1,000

Corporate membership is offered to industry companies and organizations that wish to have multiple employees involved with DCHA. This membership is held in the organization’s name. One designated member contact should be provided and is entitled to one vote. Up to 15 sub-members may be submitted. Submit sub-memberships to DCHA at info@calfandheifer.org.

Student Membership | $25

Student membership is available to students of primary and secondary educational institutions, colleges, universities, two-year institutions, community colleges, graduate school and trade schools. To be eligible for student membership, the individual must be engaged in industry-related coursework, pre-work force engagement.
